

REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

The San Juan County Commission will accept Request for Proposals from qualified individuals and/or companies to provide a mass emergency notification system for law enforcement, emergency responders and the community. The proposals shall be due at the Offices of the San Juan County Commission, 117 South Main Street, Post Office Box 9, Monticello, Utah 84535-0009 no later than 5:00 P.M. on Thursday, February 2, 2017.

San Juan County reserves the right to reject and any all proposals, to waive any informality of any proposal and the right to award a contract to the individual or company that in the opinion of the County provides the best product and service to the county. Specifications for the proposal can be obtained by calling the San Juan County Commission office at 435-587-3225 or going to the county website <http://www.sanjuancounty.org>

Published in the San Juan Record January 18, 25, 2017

Specifications:

Reverse dial 911-alerts to landlines in impacted areas.

Reverse dial 911-alerts to cell phones in impacted areas.

Public Subscribers: Preferred contact method.

Social Media: Posts and alerts for public to view.

IPAWS: Capability-Apert unregistered public through WEA & EAS. Capability to issue critical emergency alerts through all FEMA's IPAWS alerting channels. Wireless Emergency Alerts (WEA), Emergency Alert System (EAS), Non-Weather Emergency Alerts to weather radios (NWEM/HazCollect), Critical information exchange with other COGS (Cog-to-Cog)

Responder Mobilization

Multi-Modal Communication: Quickly engage responders and staff

Interactive Communication & 2 was polling: Assess availability and status

Mobile App: Secure engagement with staff and responders

Incident Management: pre-defined scenarios and real time reporting.

Scheduled Events and Staffing

Synchronized Contact Management